

AP Psychology Summer Reading:

Students must read one of the following books: Opening Skinner's Box by Lauren Slater or 50 Great Myths of Popular Psychology by Scott O. Lilienfeld, et.al. After each chapter/myth students are to write a brief summary about what they just read.

The first week of school year will be dedicated to working with books groups to create a book summary for the other book group.