SCSD Families,

During our next BOE meeting on Thursday, December 10th, a proposed calendar revision will be presented to the Board of Education that would make our last day of school (in-person and virtual) before winter break on Friday, December 18th. So, there would be no school on December 21st and 22nd. This means whatever Tuesday, December 22nd was on the calendar for our different grade levels would occur on the 18th. It will be an Early Release Day for K-8, a full day of school for HS (HS has an early out day that Wednesday), and the ECC will follow their unique schedule.

We want you to know about this proposed plan now so that you can start planning for any possible child care needs that you may have. We will send out more information on Friday, if the proposed plan is approved.

United Together,
Dr. Jason Sefrit
Superintendent of Schools
